1. Discussed with [redacted] problems raised by continued contact with [redacted] who was originally sent to me by Mr. Cahn, Counsel to Senator Wiley. By arrangement she has been making her information available to the [redacted] [redacted] This material comes from a source of [redacted] in the [redacted] and largely deals with alleged international maneuverings in the [redacted] [redacted] has become somewhat of a burden and, while extremely bright, has also become neurotic. [redacted] wishes to let her go even though this means she may take the matter to Vice President Nixon and Senator Wiley. I have recommended that they ease the contact off and I will attempt to talk with Mrs.
[redacted]
